THE REPEAL OF THE C. D. OBDINANCES IN Ceylon, His Excellency the Governor said :- I will only say a few words in standing by itself and having no relation with any other place. I do not think there would be any hesitation on the part of any member of Council now sitting here to keep in force the ordinance which now exists. But Caylon is only part of a great wholeof a great Empire, and the troops for whose benefit, chiefly, this ordinance was passed are the troops of that Empire, and are stationed in all parts of the world. So long tained in the adjoining perinsula of India. it was possible to maintain it here. Personally I agree with my hon. f iend who has pointed out the great difference between the condition of life in the East and in the West of Europe, and, so long as India was excepted in the repeal of this law, it was perfectly possible to maintain it in existence here also, although it might have been said that the reasons for its existence were stronger in India than here, as indeed they are on account of the greater strength of the military force. But when the ordinance was repealed in India the possibility outery of the labouring classes against the of maintaining it in Coylon ceased. I have sinia, from Vancouver, left Nagasaki injustice of having their markets awamped represented as far as it was possible for me the objections existing to its repost here. with Chinese cheap labour. Parliament in its wisdom has decided, whether rightly or wrongly it is not for me to say, as to what shall be the policy of the Empire, that policy being policy provided for the whole Empire and not for Caylon or any particular part of it. I bow to the decision, and will to the best of my power carry out the decisions which have been arrived at at home. I have been directly instructed to pass this ordinance

MORE OPIUM SMUGGLING.

The case in which a hoat-woman and a man of no particular employment are charged with having been in unlawful possession of some 1.400 tacks of raw opium was again before Mr Pollock this afternoon. Mr Johnson, Crown Solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr Caldwell appeared for the second defendant.

Mr Johnson explained that the defoudents were charged with being in possession of raw opium in quantities less than a chest without a certificate of purchase from ; a licencee. Bection 4 of the Opinm Ordinance provided that licences for trafficking in raw opium in quantities less than a chest might be granted, but as a matter of fact the Government had granted no licence of this kind, so that the defendants could not possibly have a valid certificate of purchase. No person except the Opium Farmer was entitled to have raw opium in his possession in less quantity than a chest. London, November 8 .- Mr T. Archer, Agent-General for Queensland, has informed Lord Knutsford, Secretary of State for the rebellion, advance on Dongola, and indicate any aggressive intentions on the the Colonies, that strong diseatisfaction is feit in Queensland at the selection of Sir Arthur Henry Blake as Governor of that

London. November 9.- The Daily Chronicle of this morning, commenting on the protest of the Queensland Government against the appointment of Sir Arthur Henry Blake to the Governorship of that colony, says that the Colonial Ministry had a right to be consulted in the matter, and the refusal of such a reas nable request may hinder Imperial federation.

The Pall Mall Gazette to-day, referring to the Queensland Governorship, says that the appointment as colonial Governors of persons distrateful to the colonists will tend to promote the Separatist movement.

London. November 40.-The Standard save that in the appointment of the Queensland Governor the Colonial Office has exhibited the want of tact which it has so frequently manifested in its dealings with the young, spirited, and highly sensitive colonies. In the long run the colonies will not consent to be wounded and thwarted when they consider that their feelings ought to be consulted. The members of the Liberal and Parnellite parties, influenced by the record of Sir Arthur Blake's career in Ireland, will raise the question of his appointment to the Governorship of Queensland in the House of Commons on Monday. Lindon, November 12. - A communicated article published in the Times to-day urges that Sir Henry Arthur Blake should be sent to some Crown colony, and an acknowledged leader of public affairs or a leading colonial Governor be appointed to the Governorship of Queensland It is thought probable that Sir Henry Blake, Governor of Newfoundland, instead of being sent to Queensland, will exchange places with Sir John Pope Hennessy, Governor of Mauritius. In reply to a question by Mr H. C. E Childers in the House of Commons to-day, Baron Henry de Worms, Under Secretary for the Colonies, stated that her Majesty's Government had decided to ask Sir Thomas M'Ilwraith to state the grounds of his objection to the appointment of Sir Henry Arthur Blake as Governor of Queensland November 14th, Sir John Goist, secretary of the India Office, in replying to Mr Henniker Heaton, stated that he received a request from South Australia yesterday, that was similar in tenor to the Queensland demand to be consulted in the choice of of university students and Radicals. He Governor, and that it had not yet been replied to.

The St. James' Gazette urgen the cancellation of Sir H. A. Blake's appointment. Truth eulogises Blake, but considers that the Government caunot pesaibly insist upon making an appointment in direct disregard Baron de Worms, in reply to Mr Childers, he said that South Australia had been informed, similarly to Queensland, that although the Imperial Government were anxious to consult the colonies on all anbjects in which they were interested it was impossible to do so in the appointment of Governora.

The New South Water Legislative Assembly has carried a motion- That a petition be presented to the Queen recommending a high standard for Colonial Governors. and that the colonies be consulted before an appointment is made.

Mr Bushanan's amendment, favouring immediate separation, was received very unfavourably by the House, and was emphatically negatived. 16th.-Lord Knutsford's depatch to Sir

Arthur Blyth reiterates the statement made to Queensland ve the appointment of Co. lonial Governors, and add ., that, apart from his Imperial functions, the Governor of a London, November 13.—Sir James Han- onlony occupies a position which precludes n n, president of the Parnell Commission, the local ministry from having a voice in his has received a menacing letter. The Economist thinks that Queensland will not, on reflection, risk the dangers of Separation for the sake of the Irish, and that Sir Thomas McIlwraith is attempting to reduce the colonies to the position of 19th.-Lord Carnaryon in a letter to the Times, deplores the rough tone adopted by Sir Thomas M. Ilwraith, and the self-assertion of the colonies. He considers it impossible for Lord Knutsford to concede the right asked for. He culogises Sir H. B. Loch and Lord Carington, and hopes that the incident will be terminated promptly. Mr Henniker Henton, M. P., defends Sir Thomas McIlwraith in the columns of the Times. The French-Canadians are agitating to secure a voice in the nomination of their Governors. Nov. 21st, -Sir H. A. Blake is at Queenstown, he is prepared to proceed to Queens-land if required to do so. He is confident that he can live down all hostility, and that the opposition already exhibited will not be allowed to bias his political action in the slightest degree. Earl Dunraven considers that it would be vernors, and that to allow them to do so would be tantamount to separation. Lord Knutsford said that he intends to adhere to these doctrines, and had replied to Adelaide to that effect on the fifteenth. 24th, -The Standard says that Sir Henry Parkes speech on the question is worthy of and that it would be impossible to intimate in more respectful and less irritating language the wish of the colonies on the subject. and that the Government will find it necessary to comply with the conditions so temperately advanced by the Governments of Sydney and Adelaide. The Daily Chronicle considers the request to be very reasonable, and that the colonies are entitled to the same consideration as is shown to foreign powers when appointing Ambassadors. 26th, -The Times hopes that Sir H. A. Blake's success in Newfoundland will The Emperor William's speech at the disarm Queensland's opposition, and is conin opposition to Sir Henry Parkes, and it is further stated, while Sir T. McIlwraith's objections are somewhat incoherent Bir Henry Parkes' arguments are intelligible. but that if adopted they would in effect reduce the union of the mother country and the colonies to a complimentary connection. Nov. 28th-It is understood that the Cabinet has agreed that Sir H. A. Blake resigns Queensland, but they decline to disclose privately the name of his successor. They are willing to consider later the opinions of the colonies on the question of the appointment of Governors. Lord Knutsford stated in the House of Lords that Blake had resigned. He spoke eulogistically of him, and stated his belief that the opposition had arisen through Lord Derby endorsed his remarks and concurred with the feeling that it is impolitic to attempt to resist prejudice no matter how unfounded Sir H. A. Blake's resignation was announced in the House of Commons, and received with derisive cheers by the opposition. The discussion in the House of Lords on the Blake question, showed that there is an queasy feeling lest the colonies should take up the separation question seriously. The Cabinet have decided to consult the Colonial ministries before making appointments of Governors for the colonies.
